Soothing the Savage Beasts (Our background Music!)

We began the custom of having a bit of music during the hour or so before our semi-annual luncheon meetings.

Our original piano- vocalist, Dianne Whittaker, has since been replaced by Jamie Shaheen who has become a kind of favorite for the geezers and geezerettes each spring and fall. Jamie belts out the old favorites and leads us through "God Bless America" just like Kate Smith used to do.

SOOTHING THE SAVAGE BEASTS (OUR BACKGROUND MUSIC!)

- ▶ We have arranged with the caterer the ability to offer (3) choices for your meal. They will usually be a chicken, beef, or vegetarian entrée (suitable for diabetics). So please indicate your choice as you send in your reservation and check using the large part of the card. We've added a stub to your reservation card. Please detach it from the mail-in portion. This will allow you to keep a reminder of the luncheon date and venue as well as your meal selection. When you check in, you will be given a ticket to give to the waiter. He (she) will use it to get the right meal to you.
- ▶ Further changes have been adopted for our twice-yearly luncheon meetings:
 1. The Luncheon Room itself will be closed to all but Crystal Rose Center and Retiree set-up staff until 10:00 a.m.
 2. At 10:00 a.m. the Luncheon Room will be open for Socializing and any members who choose to reserve tables for themselves and their friends are welcome to do so any time after the doors are open.
 3. To make it easier for folks who don't have reserved seats to find seating arrangements, there will be signs on the tables identifying those tables that have been reserved and those that still have seats available
 4. An addition of four extra tables will make securing seating with former teammates easier
 5. There will be a Sergeant-at-Arms in the room to assist with any problems. Please cooperate with these new procedures. The changes have been made after careful thought, and will help avoid inconveniences to our members who have had difficulty finding seating with their friends.

SOME NEW RULES TO IMPROVE OUR LUNCHEON MEETINGS...
